

Makonis Consulting Ltd is a small natural resource-based firm in the Okanagan working with a variety of clients across western Canada.

The position is in the Okanagan and southern BC areas, project dependent. The position will require travel to project sites and include:

- Assisting with vegetation, plant and/or wildlife assessments
- Environmental monitoring of construction and restoration
- Observing, recording and organizing data
- Preparation of technical reports

Qualifications

The ideal candidate must have a biology - ecology foundation. M.Sc at a minimum, or 5 years work experience. Accreditation or eligibility as a relevant professional biologist is required. Focus towards knowledge of plants, ecosystems, soils and/or wildlife would be preferred. A valid BC driver's license and vehicle. Able to work independently or as a team. Physically able to work conducting field work in all weather conditions.

Additional Assets:

- Experience in GIS
- Understanding of applicable legislation, regulations and policies
- Level 1 First Aid

Job Type: Full-time